

'70s Rock 'n' Roll Puzzle C

Across

1. First successful heavy metal band built on the guitar solos of Jimmy Page and the vocals of Robert Plant; songs: "Stairway to Heaven" and "Whole Lotta Love"
5. "Godfather of Soul" pioneered the Funk movement in the '70s
8. Hard rock group of the '70s were rediscovered in the '90s with a rap version of "Walk This Way" with Run DMC; Lead singer - Steven Tyler
10. Style built on simple repetitive rhythms, guttural vocals, horn section riffs, driving beats on every beat, and repeated lyrical lines. James Brown & George Clinton
12. Group combined complex stage shows with the costumes, makeup, and pyrotechnic displays to become the most successful act of the Shock and Glam Rock movements; key figure: Gene Simmons
13. Singer/songwriter/pianist dominated the pop-rock charts of the '70s with outlandish costumes and songs like "Goodbye Yellow Brick Road" and "Rocket Man"
14. One of the first singer/songwriters of the '70s; nicknamed "Sweet Baby _____"; "Fire and Rain", "You've Got a Friend" & "Carolina in My Mind"
15. Dance music of the late '70s; highly processed quasi-orchestral rhythmic sound; Donna Summer, The Village People & The Bee Gees
17. Southern Rock group combined traditional country lyrics with multiple electric lead guitars and close vocal harmonies; named after high school gym teacher

Down

2. Most successful band of the country-rock genre; albums have outsold every other band except The Beatles and Rolling Stones
3. Sister/brother duo of the '70s; Karen (singer/drummer) and Richard (piano/songwriter-arranger) dominated soft rock charts in the decade.
4. Stage alter-ego of David Bowie; began the glam rock movement
6. British '70s rock group created powerful arena rock sound with songs like "We Are the Champions" and "We Will Rock You"; lead singer Freddie Mercury died of AIDS
7. Successful jazz-rock group combined rock 'n' roll rhythm section with jazz brass and lead vocal
9. "Barry _____" '70s soft rock singer/songwriter achieved hits with "Mandy", "I Write the Songs" and "Copacobana"
11. Art-rock group expanded simple rock song form into lengthy artistic works like "Dark Side of the Moon" and "The Wall"
16. '70s rock sound began with an underground movement of alienation, simple, driving guitar distortion, explosive drums and inane lyrics; The Ramones, Talking Heads & The Sex Pistols.